From Pastor Joel Skindlov

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

February marks the beginning of the church season of Lent this year. The daylight hours are technically getting longer, yet the dreary clouds keep the sun from shining through to greet us. We have had eight straight days of overcast skies in a row in Spokane, and I'd like some sunshine to break through the clouds!

Lent consists of 40 days, not including Sundays, as we prepare to celebrate Easter, the Resurrection of Our Lord. Some people give something up for Lent, and some people add a spiritual practice, during these 40 days.

Matthew chapter four tells the story of Jesus' testing and tempting in the wilderness by the devil. We hear the back-and-forth tussle with the devil as the Holy Spirit leads Jesus into the wilderness.

The gospel story echoes with Old Testament passages, as Jesus speaks from the heart, "One does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God" (Deuteronomy 8:3, NRSV).

There are many images for the season of Lent, as God renews us, ourselves, our relationships, our false narratives, and the truth about ourselves and the world.

After Jesus' baptism with the Holy Spirit and the voice from heaven, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased", Jesus was led into the wilderness. Jesus' identity has been confirmed, and now the Holy Spirit leads Jesus into the wilderness.

Jesus hears the devil's next "If", "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

"He will command his angels concerning you," so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" (Psalm 91:11-12, NRSV). The devil uses the Hebrew Scriptures, the Old Testament, coaxing Jesus to respond to the contortion of the passage.

Jesus responds, "Again it is written, "Do not put the Lord your God to the test" (Deuteronomy 6:16, NRSV). Finally, the devil "took [Jesus] to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and the devil said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." (Matthew 4:8-9, NRSV).

Thoughts From The Council President

My fellow believers I come to you starting February as your new President of Prince of Peace. It's hard to believe I said "yes" to do this. In the past I have served as Secretary and Council member, but never believed I could take on the Presidents position. But here I am, beginning this journey thinking, "Today is the first day of the rest of my life". The Bible verse I first came across in trying to figure out what comes next was: Genesis 28:15 "And, behold, I am with you, and will keep you in all places where you go". So here we go. I'm praying for our new Council, new Executive officers, our Pastor and new volunteers. I certainly want to include prayers for the faithful servants who continue to say "yes" each week so our worship service is the needed experience for us. Belief will turn our worries into peace & our efforts into purpose. I know Jesus walks with us guiding and standing with us. I've utilized a motivational verse, Bible verse & then I decided to finish with a Chinese Zodiac! 2026 is the year of the Horse - The Year of the Horse brings movement & momentum. Where truth was revealed now we act. This is the year of courage & forward motion. Trusting instinct over familiarity, of choosing freedom. Clarity turns into action. Confidence grows through movement. The Shedding is done (referring to 2025 the year of the Snake). Now we run.... I hope you all choose to act and run with us. Don't wait, take a leap, go for it - God will be there...

Blessings and Love to you all

News from POP

Luther's Prayers

Lord, God, heavenly Father, I consider myself your dear child and you my beloved Father. Not because I deserve it, nor could ever merit it, but because my dear Lord, your only begotten Son Jesus Christ, would be my brother. Of his own accord he offers and makes this blessing known to me. Since I may consider myself his brother as he regards me, you will permit me to become and remain a child of yours, forever. Amen.

Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, "Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him" (Deuteronomy 6:13, NRSV).

The "if" in the devil's testing points to Jesus' identity as God's presence and agent in the world. Who are you? Who are we, as people of the body of Christ? Jesus affirms his identity and purpose in the wilderness and enters into his public ministry, revealing the power and purposes of God through teaching, healing, forgiving, and feeding people and those in need of God's gracious intervention.

What does Jesus reveal about our identity and our need?

What helps you connect more deeply with God? I appreciate walking outside and noticing the natural world. I try different prayer practices to help with my prayer life.

For some people, picking a time of day and location helps center them with prayer and/or devotional reading. How is God's story similar to and different from our lives?

Renew us, as the people of God, as Christ leads the way.

Peace,

Pastor Joel
